His Poem "Wojood" was The first digital Poem in Arabic Literature and published as a part of his novel Chat in 2005.

Mohammad Sanajleh invent a special theory for digital literature called "Digital Realism Theory" and he was the first in the world who used this term.

In 2005 Mohammad and other Arabic writers create The Arab Union for Internet Writers (AUIW) to organize and unit the Arabic efforts in Digital Age.

Mohammad Elected as a chairman of AUIW in 2005. The union was very active from 2005-2009 but because of the lack of sponsorships and understanding the union go down but there is plans to reactivate it in the near future.

Future of Digital literature

The world changed, the human being inter new era of his history (The Digital age)..the virtual human being born, this new Human need special kind of writing to express his existence, different totally from the old kinds of writing, new novel or new writing not necessary novel or poem, new ways and new paths to express his new life, feelings, fears, hopes, love, sex, relationships... so I think the future is for new ways of writing that is different totally from the old ways, not novel, no poem or stories or cinema...something totally new and maybe compined all of that in one new way of saying.

I tried to something like that in Chat and Saqee3 but I am not sure...let's try more
